Your son or daughter is being considered for a position on next year's KJHS News Team. Although most of the work is done in class, there may be times the students have to work before or after school in order to meet deadlines. Due to the nature of covering school news, students may be expected to cover activities after school hours. Your child is expected to meet the level of excellence set forth for the team. If for any reason your child fails to meet the standard expected of them, they will be removed from the team. Your signature below indicates that you would be in favor of their participation and support the standards expected of your child while in this year long program. Attendance, grades, discipline, attitude, and work ethics can be the cause of being cut from the team. (Seventh grade students must commit to a two year obligation.)
